A SECOND COMPROMISE IS OFFERED

In the suit of W. H. H. Trice and Others Against the Burruss Estate—Will Probably Be Accepted—Seven, Thirty Days for Stealing Tobacco—Other Cases.

The March term of the Court of Law and Chancery begins on Monday of next week.

In the suit of W. H. H. Trice and others against Mrs. Burruss, the wife of Captain Nathaniel Burruss, a compromise has been offered. This suit, it will be remembered, was brought about a year ago by the creditors of Burruss, Son & Co., the defunct banking firm, to recover property sold aside to pay Mrs. Burruss an amount equivalent to a contingent dower, of which she had not waived her rights in property bequeathed to Judge Garrett, as trustee, to settle the affairs of the bank.

The offer made by Mrs. Burruss to the creditors who joined Mr. Trice in the suit is to pay them 50 per cent. of the amount of their claims, this to be met, and to pay the expenses, or 10 per cent. to the plaintiffs' attorneys, the payments to be made within sixty days from the date this second offer is accepted, and it is understood that nearly all interested in this particular suit have agreed to accept the compromise.

The question of what position this compromise will leave the creditors of Burruss, Son & Co. who did not unite with Mr. Trice in the attempt to recover property from Mrs. Burruss, is probably unsettled. They will probably make some effort to obtain a share of the property that this compromise admits belongs, at least in part, to the creditors. However, the creditors of the bank can be excluded from participation in the property because they did not sue Mrs. Burruss, is a question. However that may be, the offer of a compromise is made for the second time.

POLICE COURT.

A very short and uninteresting docket was spread before Justice Tamm in the Police Court yesterday, which was disposed of as follows:

Grace Bishop, colored, was charged with stealing tobacco to the value of $3 from R. P. Goodson, corner Chapel and Queen streets. He was found guilty and given thirty days in jail.

Laura Lee, colored, was fined $3 for fighting with Sarah Hawkins, also colored. This was the outcome of a decision in the Police Court on Thursday, when Sarah was acquitted of the charge of stealing from Laura. The latter was so incensed at the escape of the former that she attempted to satisfy her wrath by giving Sarah a sound thrashing, with the result that she was arrested and fined as above.

Louisa Wallace, for breach of the peace, was fined $1 and costs.

A. G. Webb, charged with assault, was fined $2.50 and costs.

John Hanson, for being drunk and disorderly, was assessed $2.50 and costs.

Joseph Anderson and James Carroll were each fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

Richard Evans, colored, for breach of the peace, was made to pay $2.50 and costs.

Caroline Bullock, for using abusive language, was fined $1 and costs.

UNITED STATES COURT.

On Thursday next the barge Daisy Bell, which was libeled here on Friday, the 12th, by Hudson Bros., will be sold on the order of Judge John Paul, of the United States Court of the Western District of Virginia.

Fetide Said to be Epidemic.

Dr. La Rue, the famous French authority on abnormal phenomena, and a professor in Laval University, has, after exhaustive comparison of facts in France, Belgium, England and the United States, come to the conclusion the epidemic of fetide is a malarial and is epidemic. There seems to be strong corroboration of this in our own country where one suicide particularly among young females—followed by a second and a third—has been matter of notoriety for nearly half a century. The most reliable preventive and curative of the various forms of malarial is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Restored patients have not only set the seal of their approbation upon it in malinaria, but also cured it for rheumatism, kidney and liver troubles, nervousness, dyspepsia and constipation. It improves both appetite and sleep, and is a capital mitigant of infirmity in advancing years.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' SOCIAL

Held at the First Baptist Church Last Night—Thackeray Literary Societies Have a Debate at Y. M. C. A.—Candidates Address a Political Meeting.

Last night at the First Baptist church a social was given the superintendents and teachers of the different Sunday schools in this city by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The affair was held in the lecture room of the church, and was attended by a large gathering of Sunday school officers.

The exercises of the evening were begun with an address by Rev. Mr. Hatcher, pastor of the First Baptist church, who told of the object of the meeting and praised the work of the W. C. T. U. for the steps it had taken in bringing together the representatives of all Protestant denominations.

Mr. Hatcher was followed by Mrs. W. D. Southall, district superintendent of Sunday school work, who gave a record of the good that had been accomplished by these socials and of the great field and opportunity that are open for more interesting work.

Dr. Young, of Epworth church, followed Mrs. Southall with a glowing address, taking for her subject "Some Points." Dr. Young charmed his hearers with his eloquence, and, true to his subject, gave them "some points" on Sunday school work. He touched upon every branch of the work and gave valuable advice as to how to conduct each one so that the desired result could be obtained. The audience showed great interest and enthusiasm, and were seemingly greatly benefited by having heard the able instructions of Dr. Young.

Mrs. Milley, district secretary, gave a short talk on the practical part of a teacher's life.

Mrs. Paville, the district president, made a brief address, in which she told of the success the W. C. T. U. had made in Sunday school work, and of the many pleasant socials which it is proposed to give from time to time.

During the intermissions between the addresses vocal and instrumental music was furnished by a number of local talent. Delightful refreshments were served in the pastor's study after the pleasant event came to a close with a prayer by Dr. Young.

Thackeray Literary Society.

Met and Enjoyed a Spirited Debate, Which Was Decided in Favor of the Affirmative.

Last night was auspicious in the annals of the above society, when the debate, "Resolved, That heredity is more influential in the formation and development of character than environment," took place at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The negative side was represented by Messrs. Hugh J. Paylor, H. J. Bulzel and M. C. Harris and the affirmative by Messrs. J. T. Chesland, J. H. Gatling, J. Keeling and A. Hoffman. The arbitrators were Dr. H. L. Payne and Messrs. J. Bunting and Charles March, of Washington, D. C. The critic was Dr. L. R. Fry and the timekeeper Mr. Truworthy.

Mr. Land took the chair at 8:15 and the meeting adjourned just two hours later. After a brief retirement of the judges, the decision was announced in favor of the affirmative.

HEBREW INDEPENDENT CLUB.

A Very Enthusiastic Meeting Held at Richardson's Hall.

The Hebrew Independent Political Club held a very enthusiastic meeting at Richardson's Hall, corner Bank street and City Hall avenue, last night. The room was filled to overflowing with politicians from every ward in the city, among which were a number of aspirants to city offices who had announced themselves as subject to the primary election to be held next month.

Speech-making was the order of the evening, and from the time the first speaker took the platform the whole assemblage gave itself over to patriotism and enthusiasm, which was demonstrated by the frequent bursts of applause as each speaker hit upon a point that pleased his hearers. Among the speakers were Messrs. George H. Davies and C. Brooks Johnston, candidates for Mayor; James F. Dunham and T. A. Woodworth, for Commonwealth's Attorney; William L. Baker and Geo. M. Polard, for City Collector; K. Meade Osborne, City Attorney; John F. Lawler, City Sergeant, and Messrs. Mordecai, Furr, Moses, Constable and Grandy, all of whom have announced themselves for minor offices.

Messrs. P. J. Morris and Hugh J. Miller made eloquent and patriotic addresses and each was warmly greeted. Refreshments were served and at a late hour the meeting came to a close.

AMUSEMENTS.

"THE REAL WIDOWED BROWN."—This comedy was presented at the Academy of Music last evening before a fairly good audience, and it was greatly enjoyed. The play, long a favorite, has been re-written by Joseph Le Brandt. The specialties introduced were very good indeed, and several amusing parades were included, wending up with a potpourri of popular songs of the day. The play itself was well staged and the cast very well placed. This afternoon the Widow will be seen again at matinee.

RELIGIOUS.

Sunday services at Second Presbyterian church, the Rev. W. S. Lacy, D. D., pastor, are announced as follows: Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the Rev. G. W. Lawson. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

In the Baptist church Sunday night at 8 p. m. there will be memorial services of Neal Dow and Miss Frances Willard. The services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Hatcher. All the members of the W. C. T. U., the Y's and the Loyal Temperance Leagues are urged to be present and friends of the cause.

DEATH OF MR. WM. BRUXLEBEN.

Mr. William Erxleben, a well known citizen, died Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, at his home, No. 56 Falkland street. He had been a resident of Norfolk for many years, and had the respect and esteem of a large number of its people. He was a member of La Fayette Lodge of Odd Fellows and of Warden Post of the Grand Army of the Republic. The funeral will take place from the residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

THE MARKET BUILDING STRENGTHENED.

The City Market building has been strengthened by having fifty-one iron girders placed under the floor. The old wooden girders, which were put in at the time the building was erected, gave way under the great weight resting upon them, but no damage or loss of life resulted. The new heavy steel member now makes the building perfectly level and thoroughly safe.
